Washington, November 23.—Total casualties in the American expeditionary forces up to the signing of the armistice were divided as follows:

Killed and died of wounds 36,154; died of disease 13,811; died from other causes 2,204; wounded 179,625; prisoners 2,163; missing 1,160.

The American forces in France, General March said, had taken 44,000 German prisoners in round numbers and 1400 guns.

He added that the casualties among the American forces in northern Russia were not severe, contrary to reports and that encouraging accounts of the situation of the forces there had been received.

Movement of troops from France will be expedited in every way the chief of staff said.

Taking up the present advance of the allied forces he pointed out the American army is heading for Coblenz, the center bridgehead on the Rhine, where it should arrive about December 1st.

The British forces will occupy the bridgehead to the north at Cologne, and the French the bridgehead to the east at Mainz.

AMERICAN ARMY MAY BE THE FIRST TO ENTER GERMANY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 23.—The American army of occupation may be the first of the major military forces moving toward the Rhine to set foot on German soil.

General Pershing reported today to the War Department that his advance had reached the line Ingeldorf-Schangen, Duchy of Luxemburg or just across the Moselle river from Rhenish Prussia.

Tonight or tomorrow they will be moving toward Coblenz, the Rhine bridgehead assigned to the United States to hold over French territory.

BIG LIST OF WOUNDED.

Discussing the enormous number of wounded recorded in the total casualties announced by March, officials said this included many thousands of men slightly hurt who did not go to hospitals and whose names never had been reported. Casualties reported to the Department up to yesterday number only a little more than 82,000 and most estimates of the probable total when the armistice was signed had not been over 100,000.

Long lists are coming in daily now, however, and the total exclusive of the slightly wounded may go far above previous estimates.

The 332nd infantry, mentioned in General March's statement, was trained at Camp Sherman. Colonel C. W. Wallace is commander of the regiment.

OCCUPATION ARMY SIZE NOT GIVEN

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 23.—The strength of the American army to be maintained in France was not indicated by General March in today's statement, beyond the demobilization plan announced.

American troops in Italy including the 332nd Infantry, will be stationed for the time being at Cattaro, Fiume and Trieste, one battalion of the infantry being located at each place.

HOME DEMOBILIZATION. Demobilization of the forces at home is proceeding steadily. Several of the present camps will be abandoned as soon as they are cleared out of their occupants.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGES.

Regarding the shipment of Christmas packages to the Expeditionary forces, General March said the steamer Manchuria sailed from Hoboken yesterday with 16,000 sacks containing 565,000 packages. In addition to the 2,000,000 packages, authority has been given the Red Cross to send from 50,000 to 60,000 more packages for men who do not receive those sent to them or who have no one to remember them.

General March disclosed that there are in France 13 American tank bat-

SUCCESSOR A PROBLEM

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 23.—Giving necessity for replenishing his fortune as a reason, Wm. G. McAdoo has resigned as secretary of the treasury and director general of railroads. His resignation has been accepted by President Wilson. As secretary of the treasury McAdoo will retire as soon as a successor has been chosen and has qualified. He will not relinquish his position as head of the government controlled railroads January first, unless a director has been selected.

President Wilson for the fourth time in his 6 years term of office, is faced with the necessity of filling a vacancy in his cabinet. It is not known whether the president will fill separately the offices of Secretary of the Treasury and Director General of Railroads. In some quarters it was thought today that the president may make some other member of the cabinet head of the railroad systems. In such an event it was considered likely the place would go to Secretary Baker, or Burleson, or Secretary Lane of the Interior.

Should the president decide to go outside his cabinet the name of Walker D. Hines assistant director general and chairman of the board of directors of the Santa Fe was mentioned.

The photograph shows Lady Beatty and her oldest son, David, who is following his father's career in the navy.

MUSTERING OUT SHERMAN ARMY BEGINS TUESDAY

Delay in Arrival of Honorable Discharges Postponed Work For a Few Days

Final Dress Parade to be Held on Tuesday

(By Associated Press)

Camp Sherman, November 23.—Failure to receive proper discharge blanks from the War Department at Washington through misunderstanding today caused military authorities at Camp Sherman to postpone until next Tuesday or Wednesday the mustering out of the first Ohio troops to be ordered honorably discharged following the signing of the armistice.

Orders were issued this week for mustering out 12,000 of Ohio draft soldiers.

They were to have been released at the rate of 500 daily, beginning today. The men were to have reported at eight o'clock this morning to receive their final papers, pay and transportation.

However the discharge blanks had not been received this morning and at the last minute the muster-out was postponed.

Camp officials said this morning that the first contingent probably would be mustered out next Wednesday morning or possibly Tuesday.

The final dress parade will be held Tuesday, however, and many of the selects wish to remain in the army until after the parade.

The first men to be mustered out will be those who were to have been discharged today.

LIVERPOOL, November 22.—Several thousand American soldiers sailed for home today on the liners Lapland and Minnehaha.

It was a stirring scene as the men marched from the railway station and local camps to the landing stage amid the rousing cheers from the throngs of people in the streets.

INDICATE TROOPS TO COME HOME

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 23.—General March announced today that authority has been given to General Pershing to send back home all such troops as will not be needed in making up the army of occupation. He said that General Pershing had indicated that the following units would not be so required:

Divisions 34, 34, 38, 39, 70, 84, 86, 87;

Coast artillery regiments 46, 47, 49, 50, 75, 70;

Field artillery brigades 65, 103.

In addition General Pershing indicated that the following general class of troops would be returned:

Railroad artillery troops; army artillery; gas troops; tank corps; air forces, and those divisions which were broken up to be used as replacements for other divisions which had seen active service.

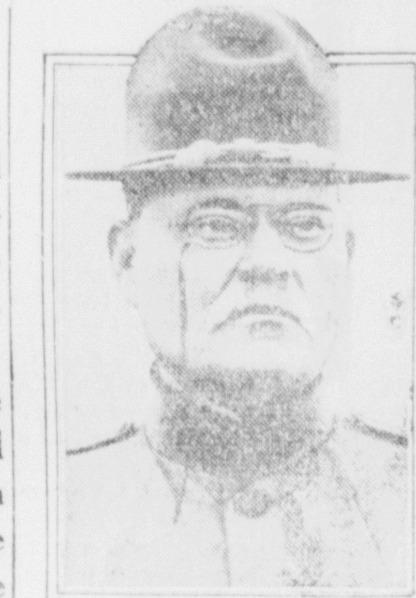

Troops returning immediately from England he said, will include practically all of the air squadrons, 16 construction companies, 1 sale makers detachment, one Handley-Page training section and several photographic and radio sections. Orders for return of these already have been issued.

THANKSGIVING IS PROCLAIMED BY GOVERNOR COX

Success in the Fight for the Betterment of Humanity One of Great Causes Ohio's Chief Executive States

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 23.—"While giving thanks let us ask for continued guidance for the fight for the betterment of humanity's condition," was the plea contained in a proclamation issued today by Governor James M. Cox calling upon the people of Ohio to observe Thursday, November 28, as Thanksgiving Day.

The proclamation states that peace after a bitter period of frightful disorder is cause enough for thanksgiving at this time but "that this peace brings the dawn of a new day of consecration to service, unselfishness is added reason for unrestrained gratitude to the Giver of all good gifts."

NO CORN SHIPPED FROM THIS COUNTY DEMAND IS HEAVY

Unprecedented Amount Demanded For Feeding Purposes, Coupled With Short Crop, Produces Unusual Situation — Elevators Virtually Idle.

For perhaps the first time since Fayette county became a heavy corn producing community and railroads made marketing of corn a comparatively easy matter, this county is shipping little or no corn nor will it ship any outside of the immediate vicinity.

This situation is due entirely to an unprecedented demand and the comparatively light crop the past season, the two causes combining to produce a situation which already is causing farmers to pay considerably more than the market price for corn in some instances, in order to obtain a supply sufficient to feed their hogs to a good marketable weight, and to carry their livestock through until next spring, when grass will become available once more.

Already some of the farmers are beginning to make inquiry for the purchase of corn outside of Fayette county, and it is expected that within a short time corn from out side of the county will be shipped into Fayette to meet the demand here.

Many light weight hogs have been marketed by reason of the supply of corn available for feeding, and indications are that more of the light weights, now included as "throw-outs" will be shipped before the advent of spring.

The number of swine fed off and being fed off in the county is said to be an exceptionally large number, and the farmers who did not raise sufficient corn to meet the requirements of feeding their herds, are buying corn from their neighbors who have corn more than sufficient for their own feeding purposes.

CAPT. H. D. SHANKLE AND FAMILY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

The following item from the Daily Oklahoman of November 20th, is of interest to a large number of friends here where Captain Shankle and his wife, as guests, last summer of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hartman and Mrs. Eliza McCoy on the Waterloo pike, made many friends.

"Capt. Henry D. Shankle, his wife and daughter, Helen Louise, 10 years old, were injured severely at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when an automobile in which they were riding skidded and turned over on the street car tracks at Fortieth and Classen boulevards.

Several of Captain Shankle's ribs are broken and he may be injured internally as a result of lifting the wrecked automobile from his daughter who was pinned beneath. Mrs. Shankle is suffering from a wound in the face and lacerations in the left arm above the elbow. The daughter is severely cut about the face and her right arm is fractured.

The Shankles are in their apartments at 611 North Johnson Ave.

The automobile in which Captain Shankle and his family were riding was new, and he was taking a lesson in driving. Captain Shankle slowed the machine to eight miles an hour as he approached the street car tracks. The tires failed to grip the rails and the car overturned.

Until Captain Shankle was given an honorable discharge two weeks ago, he was surgeon of the Second engineers training regiment, Camp Humphreys, Va."

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman have been advised in a letter that the injured folks are all doing as well as could be expected and no serious results are anticipated.

FEDERAL OFFICERS MAY GET THIS MAN

John Warner, a Russian, recently arrested by B. & O. detective Fred Leurance on a charge of breaking into a freight car in this city and stealing three pairs of shoes, has confessed to the crime and in all probability will be turned over to the Federal authorities for prosecution.

Warner was carrying one pair of the stolen shoes, told where a second pair could be found near the Union Station, and said he had sold the third pair to the Bellar Second Hand store in this city.

The hidden shoes were found in the place indicated, and it was admitted at the Bellar second hand store, according to the officers, that they had purchased a pair of shoes from the man.

WILLIAM S. REID ANSWERS LAST CALL

Mr. William S. Reid, retired farmer of Jeffersonville, and father of Hon. C. A. Reid, this city, entered the Great Beyond in the grey dawn of Saturday morning, after months of illness, due to heart trouble and a complication of diseases.

The life of Mr. Reid covers a period of over four score years of honored residence in this county, where he commanded the respect of all who knew him and was a warm supporter of measures and enterprises tending to advance community welfare. Belonging to pioneer stock, he was born on the home farm on the Bogus road, one of a large family of children, and having an extensive relationship in the county. His life was rounded out in quiet happiness in his own home, his last years crowned with the consciousness of duty performed in all of its relations, in moral and civic issues and in home circles. A kindly, gentle man, an excellent friend and neighbor whom everyone liked, his death is learned with wide spread regret.

The last place where Mr. Reid met his friends publicly was at the Reid reunion, held in the Reid grove at Bookwalter. His death marks the first break of a happy family circle. His wife, Caroline Reid, a sister of the late Wallace Creamer and herself 87 years old, and five sons, W. O. Reid, C. A. Reid, Howard Reid, A. H. Reid of Greenville, and W. E. Reid, survive the beloved father, and three sisters, Mrs. Adaline Stuckey, Mrs. Ellen Stokesbury, of this city, and Mrs. Thomas of California.

Mr. Reid was a devoted member of the Jeffersonville M. P. Church, where funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Monday.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS ANOTHER VICTIM

Mrs. Bert Haughey passed away at her home in Bowersville Friday night at 11 o'clock, pneumonia following an attack of the influenza.

Mrs. Haughey is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Arehart, of Bowersville, and was born on the Worthington land in Concord township, latter moving to Jasper township, where she grew up into winsome young womanhood.

TAYLOR DAIRY HERD IS SOLD

With the sale of the entire dairy herd of some 80 head of cows, Friday, one of the leading dairies furnishing milk to this city passed out of business, the cows being sold to individuals throughout the county, many of the cows bringing considerably under the real value. The total receipts of the sale amounted to about $12,500.

In addition to the eighty head of cows, a large number of calves were disposed of.

The highest price brought by any of the splendid animals was $126. Only a few of the animals, three or four, were purchased by residents of this city.

The dairy wagons, bottles and other equipment were purchased by the Armbrust Dairy, which is enlarging its business in order to meet the increased demand occasioned by the suspension of the Taylor Dairy.

DEATH FOLLOWS AN OPERATION

Mr. D. P. Wade, esteemed resident and former of Jeffersonville, died at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, Saturday morning at three o'clock, aged 61 years. He had been at the hospital since Monday a week ago, and had undergone a grave operation.

SWINE SALES ARE LARGELY ATTENDED

The public sales of spotted Poland China swine, held at the Sales Barn in this city, Thursday and Friday, were largely attended and with few exceptions the blooded swine offered brought good prices.

Buyers were present from a great many states, and bidding generally was very lively.

On Thursday "The Great Eastern Home Coming Sale" under the auspices of The National Spotted Poland China Record Association, was held, and on the following day the Booco an dSmith sale was held and was even more successful than that of the previous day, and Mr. Booco was very well satisfied with the results. The average price was good and the animals disposed of included some of the best Spotted Poland China in the United States.

DAHL-CAMPBELL BRANCH IS HOST TO SALES FORCE

Salesmen and Department Heads of Monypeny-Hammond Branch and Dahl-Campbell Branch of Chillicothe Inspect Plant Here, Enjoy Peace Banquet, and Motor to Chillicothe to Inspect Plant.

The Dahl-Campbell Branch of this city Saturday entertained the sales forces, and department heads from The Monypeny-Hammond Branch, of Columbus, and the Dahl-Campbell Branch at Chillicothe, the crowning feature of the jolly event being an elaborate turkey banquet faultlessly prepared and served in the handsome dining hall of the firm in the central building of the group in this city, at the noon hour.

The visitors included 35 men from the Monypeny-Hammond Branch, of Columbus, and some 10 members of the Dahl-Campbell Branch of Chillicothe, and the "get-together" meeting of the salesmen, managers and department heads marks a new epoch in the interesting history of the huge wholesale concerns which supply two-thirds of the counties in Ohio with their well known brands of goods, and employ a total of nearly 100 traveling salesmen and department heads.

The visitors from Columbus and Chillicothe motored to this city, arriving Saturday morning, and made a tour of inspection carrying them in to every department and upon every floor of each of the six buildings which form the great plant in this city. All were delighted with the arrangements and with the modern large-scale plan used in handling the business from this city.

At the noon hour the entire party, augmented by the entire sales force and department heads of the Dahl-Campbell Branch in this city, after a rest had been enjoyed in the lounging and club rooms of the firm on the second floor of the central building, filed into the great dining hall where long tables, covered with snow-white linen upon which sparkled silver and crystal, with bouquets of huge, shaggy chrysanthemums at either end of each table, and a great heap of alluring fruit piled in the center. Patriotic decorations and a blaze of electric lights added to the beauty of the scene, while a host of charming girls, all arrayed in white, stood at one side ready to serve the bounteous repast. The more than 100 diners filed in to the strains of a march, circled the room and then filed down the central aisle and took their places.

After a few words of welcome by Mr. W. M. Campbell, the singing of America and invocation of divine blessings, the jolly throng enjoyed the repast composed of:

Oyster Cocktail Pickles Celery
Roast Turkey Cranberry Sauce
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Sweet Briar Tiny Peas
Hot Rolls Wafers
Midland Salad Red Cross Cheese
Pumpkin Pie Red Bird Coffee
44 Cigars El Verso Cigars
Fruit Nuts

The banquet was interspersed by the singing of songs and the exchange of puns, so that the toothsome banquet came to an end all too soon, although lasting nearly two hours. Mr. Walter Herron, assistant manager of the firm in this city, had charge of the entertainment, and the diversion was a most pleasant one, showing the careful study of the master of the art.

Following the banquet and accompanying the smoker, a number of speeches were made by a number of accomplished orators of the various firms, and about two o'clock the entire party left this city by automobile to inspect the Dahl-Campbell Branch at Chillicothe, and thus bring the day to an end after a most enjoyable intermingling for mutual benefit and enjoyment.

POEM FOR TODAY

TO ENGLAND, 1918.

Oh, England, our England (not yours alone, but ours);
England of the iron coast, rich morrow lands, and flowers,
England that we loved indeed in those folded days
When the glad world lay at peace beneath the sun's large gaze,
England, now we come to you, seeing your red scars,
Seeing you encircled by the awful hosts of Mars.
Yet England, our England, undaunted still you stand!
And England, dear England, we press your burning hand.

Oh, England, brave England, the years have brought you these:
Sorrow and war's mad alarms—undreamed of tragedies,
and griefs that try the souls of men and test the lion's brood;
But England, firm England, you gave your youth and blood.
In agate endurance, in largeness of the soul,
Oh, England, sad England, you keep your birthright whole.
And we who come as pilgrims to your stricken land,
Oh, England, our England, how well we understand.

REGARD WILHELM AS PRIVATE PERSON

(By Associated Press)
Paris, November 23.—The Dutch legation Friday published a note containing a declaration by the president of the Netherlands council of ministers to the chamber of deputies, saying that the former German emperor entered Dutch territory after his abdication as a private personage. The note says the kind of refuge granted to him is similar to that given all foreign refugees and that the government could not make any exception when he asked to be admitted to Dutch territory.
The note adds that the Netherlands government does not believe that foreign governments, whose subjects so often have had the benefit of Dutch refuge, will refuse to respect national tradition or to remember instances when they themselves gave hospitality to deposed monarchs.

Politics Again

The Senate and the House of Congress are a veritable beehive of political activity and the executive departments seem to be doing their full share, too, whether as aggressors or in self defense it is difficult now, in the general confusion, to determine with any degree of satisfaction.

There seems to be a disposition, now that the lid of actual war necessity has been lifted to criticize and condemn every action of the executive departments. Perhaps the present political uproar is partly an accumulation of energy long suppressed. Let us hope so at least, and hope also, at the same time, that it will soon wear itself out, if not entirely, at least tame down to the point where there will be less bitterness exhibited.

Whatever the cause the people generally are not accepting conditions pleasantly. There is too much of a disposition to find fault, some of the criticisms being absolutely childish and ridiculous, but for the mischief they may create among outsiders.

There is no question that the President and his assistants have made some mistakes during the last two trying years and it is scarcely possible that they will be able to proceed with the tremendous tasks of getting back to a peace basis without making other mistakes. But they have done a great work too.

The necessity for the temporary autocracy rule in this great democracy of ours has passed and we are all free to "cut loose" once more with our objections and our free advice, especially those of us who have no responsibility, but there are much bigger tasks confronting our public servants than complaining about every action taken.

There is a vast amount of constructive legislation to be enacted and public servants should get busy on real tasks and wait at least until campaign times to frame their issues.

Economy The Order

Time and results were the chief, if not the only factors given much consideration by those who had the task of working out the great program which amazed the world first in the magnitude of its inception and still more amazed the world in the completeness of its execution.

With the urgency of war's necessities over we turn now to the consideration of economy in national expenditures. Heretofore it has been left to the people to practice economy while the officials spent the millions and billions with a lavish hand.

Where, in the building of our great war machine officials "pointed with pride" only to results attained and turned a deaf ear to the few who would have tried to practice economy in the midst of war's wild extravagances and destructions, we now may expect the credit to be claimed by those in power for the millions of expenses curtailed or the millions saved.

We now are entering upon an era in which officials will be held, by public opinion, to the practice of economy and thrift in national affairs. We must stop the waste, cut off the useless causes of expense and commence the work of husbanding our wealth.

The day when the people cared nothing for the cost is behind us now. We will give credit for economy now, and watch with jealous eye the disposition of our national wealth.

Charges Against LaFollette

The Senate committee having under consideration the charges against Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, for his alleged disloyalty speech, has by a majority report, recommended further investigation of the charges be abandoned.

In the national crisis, during immediate pre-war days and early war days, the conduct of LaFollette both in the Senate and in his public speech taken in connection with the knowledge of his constituency, filled the nation with indignation.

The fact that the charges against LaFollette were not disposed of during the trying time of war is no reason for his acquittal now and certainly furnishes no just cause for the Senate to "abandon" the charges.

If LaFollette is innocent he is entitled to an acquittal. It's cowardly for the Senate to "abandon" the charges against him and cowardly for him to accept such a disposition of the matter.

Perhaps the lack of opportunity to make a political issue of the LaFollette affair may have something to do with the inclination to drop it now as of no further interest.

News of Interest to Women

It seems a long time, and measured by the events which have transpired during the interval it is a very long time indeed, since Rudyard Kipling gave us a book dealing in any way with the characters and point of view of the East. Yet it would seem, as in fact it has proved to be, inevitable that the coming of troops from India to fight side by side with the soldiers of England and France should be an irresistible temptation to portray the influence of one civilization upon the other. The East, seen through Western eyes, has been the theme of books without number. It is the West, or at least a certain portion of it, as seen through "The Eyes of Asia" which is the theme of this all-sister volume.

The book contains four letters, each written by a man of India to his people at home. The letters are different, as the men are different, who represent each a section of that great intermingling of people and faiths which is India, a country which we of the West are all too prone to regard as one, when it is in truth a union of many. But different as these men are, there are two conclusions which all four reach; all four repeat that India's great need is the need of education, and that she must accept the opportunities offered her; and all four declare that they must alter the status of their women and send their girls to the Government schools; that not to educate them and develop all their powers is not only unwise but also unthrifty.

These sketches, with their swift and vivid glimpses of persons and places, an event, a character, often outlined clearly in a single phrase, their touches of quaint humor, their understanding and dramatic quality, are closer akin to the work of the Kipling we know and loved of old than anything he has given us for some time. And they are of course far more than interesting and appealing descriptions of "The Eyes of Asia" and that which the eyes of Asia saw. —New York Times.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

AMERICANS AND GERMANS

In the last offensive, the German wounded received precisely the same treatment as our own men. At the Casualty Clearing Station German officers sat at table with us. On the Red Cross train they were given beds and our English sisters waited on them. I thought of how the German nurses treat our chaps, spitting into the food and the cups before they hand them to them. The officers sat stiffly and insolently with absurd yellow gloves on, looking as though every kindness shown was a national tribute to their superiority.

"One of our tanks, commanded by a boy of twenty, got too far ahead and was captured. When the attacking line caught up they found him stripped naked and bound to his tank—dead. The brutes had bombed him to death. No prisoners were taken for the next twenty-four hours; I think you will wonder why the twenty-four hours wasn't extended. The men said they got sick of the killing. Why we are decent to these vermin at all, amazes me. I think the reason is that originally we set out to be good sportsmen and are ashamed of being forced into hatred."—Lieutenant Coningsby Dawson, C. A. F., in the December Red Cross Magazine.

Only One Carton is all Soldiers May Receive Christmas.

Bound around securely with red tape, so that there will be no chance of any soldier's going out exultingly to his mates Christmas morning with two Christmas cartons, is the new ruling issued yesterday for packages to be sent to soldiers who have forwarded no labels.

The order received by Secretary McCune of the Red Cross says: "When the next of kin has not received a Christmas parcel label the chapter may supply one label only for each soldier, taking an affidavit from the recipient of the label that he or she is the nearest living relative in the United States of the proposed recipient, and that he or she has not received a label from abroad, and should such label be received it would not be used, and that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief only one Christmas parcel will be sent to the proposed recipient."

CLOVER LEAF DAIRY GREATLY ENLARGED TO MEET DEMANDS

The Clover Leaf Dairy, located on the Lewis Pike just outside of the city, and of which Augustus Armbrust is the proprietor, has greatly enlarged its facilities in order to meet the increased demands for milk in this city, occasioned by the suspension of the Taylor Dairy, and on Monday morning two wagons will be started to retail milk in this city, and a truck will take care of the larger concerns which require a large amount of milk, such as restaurants and hotels.

Considerable new equipment has been installed by Mr. Armbrust, such as cold storage and paraphernalia of the most modern kind for properly caring for the milk in a highly sanitary manner.

The Clover Leaf Dairy will purchase milk from certain of the larger producers within a few miles of the city and this with that produced by the P. R. Armbrust dairy herd, will be used to meet the demand in this city, and Mr. Armbrust expects to be able, within a short time at least, to take care of a liberal portion of the demands of the consumer.

Additional distributing stations will be established at suburban groceries, and the system to be adopted by the Dairy in its retail business will be cash and checks. Bottles and wagons of the Taylor Dairy have been added to the firm's equipment.

BIG REDUCTIONS IN REVENUE BILL

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 22.—Reductions aggregating $500,000,000 in the yield from the new war revenue bill were made today by the Senate finance committee in revising the measure downward to the $6,000,000,000 total for 1919 proposed by Secretary McAdoo. The decrease was confined principally to the tobacco, luxury, semi-luxury and other special and excise schedules.

Among the more important decisions today were the elimination of the luxury schedule proposed in the House bill, levying 20 per cent on costly articles of clothing and other merchandise and estimated to raise $184,795,000; elimination of the House tax of 2 cents a gallon on gasoline, estimated to yield $40,000,000; reduction from 10 to 5 per cent, or about $200,000,000 in revenue, in rates on many articles classed as semi-luxuries, and a reduction of about one-half in the House rates on tobacco, a cut of about $54,000,000 in revenue.

The committee deferred decision on the plan suggested by Secretary McAdoo and specifically presented yesterday by Chairman Simmons for incorporating in the measure specific rates for 1920 taxation, by which the total revenue yield would be limited to $4,000,000,000. Republican members still vigorously oppose legislation for 1920, and the committee decided to pass that question temporarily. Tomorrow it will resume revision of the miscellaneous taxes, with a view of cutting off another $500,000,000 necessary to reduce the whole to $6,000,000,000.

From 10 to 5 Per Cent.
In cutting the excise, or semi-luxury, schedules today, the committee reduced from 10 to 5 per cent the House rates on the following articles: Piano players, phonographs, photographic films, candy, portable electric fans, thermos bottles, slot machines and toilet soaps and powders. The chewing gum rate was cut from 4 to 3 per cent; that on hunting and bowie knives from 100 to 10 per cent; on fire arms and ammunition from 25 to 10 per cent and on sculpture, paintings and statuary from 10 to 5 per cent.

Ten per cent taxes imposed in the House bill on bathing suits and photographs or reproductions were entirely eliminated and that of 10 per cent of fur and wool articles made applicable to fur manufacturers only. In the excise schedule no change was made in the 5 per cent sales tax on automobiles, tires and accessories, nor in the 10 per cent rate on sporting goods and liveries, tapestries, textiles and yachts and motor boats. The 10 per cent sales tax on precious stones, jewelry and imitations, clocks, watches, opera glasses and similar articles was reduced to 5 per cent.

In planning a menu, or in serving a meal there is one very important point to be kept in mind in addition to "food value" and the "five food groups." It is termed for lack of a better word, "food textures," says the U. S. Food Administration.

Foods may be hard or soft, crisp brittle or oily, smooth or granular coarse grained or fine grained. An attractive meal avoids too many foods of the same texture. Milk toast and custard make a combination too soft, crisp rolls and nuts make a combination too hard. Dimpplings on the other hand go well with meat stews, hard cookies with soft desserts such as custards and ice creams, crisp crackers with soup, nuts with raisins or figs.

Bread and butter combine the oily with the more or less granular lettuce or other marinated vegetables with mayonnaise puts the smooth with the crisp. Granular brown bread is excellent with baked apples; meaty baked beans taste better with a little pork; smooth mashed potatoes are good with the crust of cooked meat; in potato salad, celery and cucumber add a pleasing crispness.

Insofar as our meals conform to the recognized ideals of food combinations, they will the more nearly satisfy us who eat them.

Scientists agree that satisfaction of mind results in better assimilation of food. The United States Food Administration believes that this is worth striving for, since we must endeavor to get the highest possible good out of all that we eat.

$1,000,000 FIRE AT BALTIMORE

(By Associated Press)

Baltimore, November 22.—A fire which, at one time, threatened to wreck the entire cantonment waterfront district of this city, broke out Friday at the oil-loading docks of the Standard Oil Company, destroying the company's piers, badly damaging the oil tanker F. Q. Barstow, loaded with 75,000 barrels of gasoline, and destroying three pile-driving machines of the Raymond Concrete and Pile-Driving Company of New York. The total loss, it is estimated, will reach $1,000,000.

FARM EQUIPMENT IS SELLING HIGH

Invariably the public sales of farm equipment, live stock and chattels in Fayette county are bringing top money, and some of the property being consigned to the sales is topping all previous records.

The one thing which auctioneers agree is not bringing the money that should come from such live stock, seems to be colts up to two years of age. Invariably these animals have been selling at about half the price usually paid for them.

However, many farmers see possibilities of good money in buying colts and roughing them through until they become of workable age, and are buying accordingly.

One auctioneer discussing this phase of the public sales now being held, declares that he can see no good reason why good colts should not bring a much higher price than the average has been to date.

Hogs, cattle, grain, farm machinery and in fact virtually all farm equipment has been snapped up in brisk bidding.

WM. G. M'ADOO RESIGNS FROM THE PUBLIC SERVICE

Reason Announced is ill Health and Need to Attend to His Private Affairs

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 22.—William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, director general of railroads and often discussed as one of the presidential possibilities of 1920, has resigned his offices to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr. McAdoo will give up the treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been selected. He wishes to lay down his work as director general of railroads by Jan. 1, but will remain if the president has not then chosen a successor.

Upon the new secretary of the treasury, whoever he may be, will devolve the task of financing the nation through the transition period of war to peace, which probably will include at least two more liberty loans and possibly also a further revision of the system of war taxation.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public today with the announcement of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the president's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

Mr. McAdoo after his appointment soon began taking a prominent part in shaping the administration's legislative policies and he invariably had the backing of the president. Possibly that brought him into the field of Democratic presidential possibilities when they were being discussed, but so far as anyone knows Mr. McAdoo has never expressed himself on that subject, but has devoted his attention to serving his chief.

It has been well known in Washington that Mr. McAdoo, a man of comparatively small personal fortune, has felt that sooner or later he must replenish his resources. Friends at various times have expressed some apprehension for his health, for he has been an indefatigable worker, and while the duties of secretary of the treasury in times of world war probably would have taxed the health and energy of anyone, he did not hesitate to take on the railroad administration and found time besides to take a prominent place in the president's councils on other subjects. While on a recent trip in the West he fell from a horse and broke a rib, but his friends say that had no effect whatever on his general health.

Faced Many Big Problems
Since the European war broke out in the fall of 1914, Mr. McAdoo's department has faced many big economic problems lately. The tremendous liberty loans and corollary problems of financing war expenses have been his principal concerns. Mr. McAdoo stood out strongly against all treasury advisors in May 1917, and maintained that $2,000,000,000 was not too much to ask the American people to give in a single loan. Others argued that $500,000,000 or at most $1,000,000,000, was enough.

He was a leading builder of the federal reserve system, an early advocate of a great government-built merchant marine.

WILL SOON LIFT BAN ON BURNING

Within the next few days, or as soon as the accumulation of leaves in the city become thoroughly dry, the ban on leafburning between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. will be lifted, according to Health Officer Byron.

No leaves are to be burned until formal notice is issued, and this will be done at the earliest possible moment, after which the burning must be confined to the hours mentioned and the leaves must be thoroughly dry so as to burn rapidly and produce the minimum of smoke.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS

All hunters are hereby notified that hunting, trapping or trespassing on the premises of the undersigned is strictly forbidden and that any violation of this notice will be punished to the full extent of the law.

RESIGNS POSTS

As Secretary of the Treasury of the United States and Director General of the railroads, William Gibbs McAdoo has frequently been referred to as the busiest man in the world.

He has resigned both positions the one to take effect immediately his successor is named and the other on January 1st, 1919. Ill health and the need to attend to his long neglected private affairs are assigned as the cause of his resignation.

BOOKWALTER BOY REPORTED KILLED

Word seems to have been telephoned to Bookwalter, from some unknown source, that Cash Nicely, son of Isaac Nicely, of that place, had been killed in action, but so far this has not been confirmed by official announcement in the casualty lists.

Various reports are current as to where the telephone message came from, and the announcement has caused the young man's relatives a great deal of uncertainty and sorrow, and their friends join them in the hope that the report is incorrect.

HARTMAN THEATER

Cohan & Harris' big New York musical comedy success, "Going Up," one of the few shows that ran, month after month, to crowded houses on Broadway this year comes to the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, Ohio, for one week beginning Monday evening, November 25th. It is a most fitting offering for Thanksgiving week.

The book and lyrics by Otto Harbach are based on "The Aviator," the farce by James Montgomery, and the enormously popular song hits are by Louis A. Hirsch. Comedy and music together have made "Going Up" one of the most successful of the Cohan and Harris productions. The company, headed by Raymond Crane, one of the favorites of the musical comedy stage, is remarkable not only for its comedians and singers but for its brilliant dancers and show girls, as well. The chorus is one of the most capable and attractive ever assembled on the American stage.

All these elements have played a part in the phenomenal success attained by "Going Up" since its production last winter. Month after month, this exceptionally enjoyable entertainment, which abounds in wholesome, delicious fun and in delightful songs and dances, drew crowded houses to the Liberty Theatre, New York. Few other New York productions of the year enjoyed such uninterrupted popularity as did "Going Up." The comedy itself would furnish a rare night's enjoyment, but or good measure the producers have to offer some of the best songs and dances of the year.

Mail orders for seats are now being received for the engagement of "Going Up" at the Hartman box office. Matinees are scheduled for Wednesday, Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) and Saturday.

LARRIMER LAUNDRY

"The plant with a record to maintain."

OF INTEREST TO BOND HOLDERS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 23.—To insure against loss or theft of Liberty Bonds, owners are being urged by the Treasury to have their coupon bonds registered, although the procedure results in a great amount of work and expense for the government now that the number of bond owners runs above thirty millions. The registration can be arranged at most banks, and is done without cost to the owners. After registration, if a bond is accidentally lost, stolen, or destroyed, the government will pay it at maturity just the same, and interest checks will be mailed to the bond owner twice a year without requiring him to go to the trouble of clipping coupons and presenting them at a bank.

"The fact that bonds of the First Liberty Loan or bonds of the Second Liberty Loan are converted into bonds bearing higher rate of interest does not affect the dates on which interest is payable," explains a Treasury announcement.

Interest is paid on bonds of the first loan, regardless of whether they have been converted, on June 15, and December 15; on bonds of the second loan, May 15 and Nov. 15; Third loan, March 15 and Sept. 15; Fourth loan, April 15 and Oct. 15.

The Treasury also explains that owing to the mechanical difficulties of preparing millions of interest checks on registered bonds, coupon bonds will not be exchanged for registered bonds or registered bonds transferred on the books from one owner to another, during a month before an interest paying date of each particular loan. For example, exchanges or transfers cannot be arranged for First Liberty Loan bonds between May 15 and June 15; and between Nov. 15 and Dec. 15. For the Second loan, these dates would be April 15 to May 15, and October 15 to November 15. For the Third loan, February 15 to March 15; and August 15 to Sept. 15. For the Fourth loan, March 15 to April 15; and Sept. 15 to October 15.

MAKING MONEY WITH APPLES

Pruning and spraying have improved apple crop of Everett Craig of Mt. Healthy 50 per cent, and have been accountable, he says, for 85 per cent of his profits. Last year he sold his apple crop for $3,000. His sales and profits this year are even larger than last year. Mr. Craig attributes a great deal of his success to the efforts of the county agent in securing demonstrations of improved orchard practices. Last year Mr. Craig's expenses for pruning and spraying were: Pruning $94.25; spraying materials $128; labor and teams $113.70, making a total cost of $336.65. His profits were $2,664.05.

During the last year Mr. Craig has purchased a $325 Triplex sprayer outfit on the recommendation of an extension horticulturist, and also a truck.

During the past season an application of fertilizer increased the fruit yield on some of the trees from 6 to 8 bushels. The cost of application was but 30 cents per tree and the increase due to the application of fertilizer was $20 on many of the trees. Incidentally, Mr. Craig is investing most of his money in Liberty Bonds.

THE PINCH HITTER

The score stood three to nothing, and Von Hindenburg's fast curves, Had set the batters down on strikes, and chilled the sluggers' nerves— Old Von had speed and great control—he wouldn't give a pass— His whizzing shoots and sudden drops were full of steam and gas— His infield wobbled in the ninth—they gave him bad support— But with three runners on the sacks Old Von still held the fort! Two men struck out against his skill—he hummed his Hymn of Hate. Then snickered as a substitute came slowly to the plate. "America—pinch hitting now!" the umpire shouted loud, And a great, worried silence fell upon the throbbing crowd.

"Ach vot a mark," laughed Hindenburg, and shot a fast one in— The batsman watched it sizzling by with a sarcastic grin! Another came—right through the groove—the hitter swung his ask, And all the great pavilions rang and echoed to the crash! In vain the German fielders ran—they stumbled, tripped, and reeled; That mighty hit was falling on, and passed down center field! And while the wild applause was heard from Washington to Rome, France, Italy and England, and America, slid home.

LOCAL BOYS SEE GREAT SURRENDER

At least two Washington boys, it is believed, saw the surrender of the German grand fleet, off the coast of Scotland, this week, and will be able to describe the very extraordinary sight of a host of dreadnaughts and other battle craft, hauling down the flag and surrendering.

One of the local boys who saw the surrender is Harry Swartz, son of Wm. Swartz, employed at the Brownell packing plant, who is Captain of a gun crew on the U. S. Battleship New York, flag ship of the small fleet of American vessels taking part in receiving the surrender of the German Grand fleet.

The second boy is Eugene Bliss, gunner on the U. S. Battleship Florida, which was included in the fleet. Young Bliss is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bliss, of this city, and a number of his interesting letters have appeared in the columns of The Herald.

AUTO SMASHUP MANY ARE HURT

(By Associated Press)
Dayton, O., November 23.—Motorman Charles W. Miller was badly bruised about the head, Wilbur W. Shuey, a bank teller, who was one of the passengers, was cut about the head and shoulders, and several other passengers cut by flying glass last night when a street car dashed down Salem Avenue hill and, failing to make the turn at Neal Avenue, plunged over the paved street down Salem Avenue for fully a block.

An automobile belonging to Rev. W. A. Hale, pastor of Dayton View Reformed Church, was caught by the car and carried a distance of 200 feet. The runaway car ran over a water plug and into a shade tree, breaking it off, and finally dashed upon the sidewalk into an embankment before it stopped.

The excitement attendant upon the accident was materially intensified when W. L. Shank of Trotwood ran into the crowd with an automobile, inflicting slight injuries upon several of the spectators. Shank was arrested pending an investigation.

Motorman Miller is said to have lost control of his car while descending the hill. The street car was almost completely demolished.

PNEUMONIA KILLS FAYETTE SWINE

Some of the leading farmers announce that quite a few hogs in Fayette county are dying with the pneumonia.

It was at first believed that the epidemic was cholera, but subsequent investigation has disclosed that the disease is pneumonia, although every precaution against this disease had been taken.

One farmer made a careful examination of the lungs of a fine hog that had died, and found the lungs so congested that breathing had been utterly impossible, and death had resulted speedily.
